DON'T FORGET HIM
JOHN SINCLAIR RADIO SHOW 1040

Episode 1040 is coming from Radio Free Amsterdam headquarters in Detroit's Cass Corridor with our first program of the New Year, and I've chosen to assemble an hour of music in honor of my recently departed pal Joe Stern, better known to thousands of New Orleanians as White Boy Joe of the Original Prince of Wales Social Aid & Pleasure Club. Joe paraded with the Prince of Wales every Mardi Gras and on many other occasions, served a term as President of the Club and was loved by all for many years. Born in 1942, Joe passed away last September at the age of 81 and was honored with a massive repast at the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival headquarters on North Rampart Street, just a block from where my wife Penny and I resided for several years. I'd like to dedicate this program to two of our closest mutual friends, Jerry Brock & Bill Lynn. Goodbye, White Boy Joe! Rest in Peace until we can join you in the hereafter.

Episode 1042 is coming from RFA headquarters in Detroit's Cass Corridor and is centered on an obscure recording project that Tom Worrell and I did in New Orleans a few years ago, sponsored by our pal Frenchy but never released, which involves a small set of poems composed by Worrell, recited by myself, and recorded with Tom on piano and assorted helpers in a little studio off of Oak Street. It's called The Trump Chronicles and in my estimation it's a brilliant set of satirical works in twisted rhyme schemes that skewer and roast the guy I call Resident Rump.
